“This primary residence requirement shall not, however, be applicable to short terms rentals which are conducted on the following properties:

- (2) A property located adjacent to a property owned by the same property owner (“first property”) as long as the first property is occupied by the property owner of both properties as the owner’s primary residence and is owner occupied during the short term rental of the adjacent property, and the residence on the adjacent lot contains no more that 1,000 square feet of total area.”

B. Attachment 2 – Schedule of Use Regulations is hereby amended as follows:

Short Term Rentals shall be added as a use under the category of “General Uses” and shall be listed as a permitted use in all zoning districts subject to the issuance of a short term rental permit issued pursuant to §125-64 of the Code (P**) except for the Rhinecliff Hamlet; Rhinecliff Hamlet Transition; Rhinecliff Business and Rhinecliff Overlay Districts, which shall also require the issuance of a special use permit by the Planning Board (S**). Under special conditions, there shall be a reference to §125-61, et. seq. In addition, “Notes” shall contain the following additional note numbered as Note 10, which shall read as “S** denotes the use which is subject to the issuance of a short term rental permit and a special use permit issued by the Planning Board as set forth Chapter 125, Article 5, §125-61, et. seq.

SECTION 5. SEVERABILITY:

If any provision of this local law is held invalid for any reason by a court of competent jurisdiction, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this local law.

SECTION 6. SUPERSESION

This local law is intended to supersede any provisions of the Town Law, the Town of Rhinebeck Code and the General Municipal Law, which are inconsistent with the provisions of this local law.

SECTION 7. EFFECTIVE DATE.

This local law shall take effect immediately upon its filing in the office of the New York State Department of State.
